(i) Members of the Public's comments

Brian Murray Carr, who is the crime and disorder Cabinet Member for Bolsover District Council attended the meeting because comments had been made about anti-social behaviour on the recreation area at New Houghton. He also noted that comments had also been made about how the Police were attending to complaints. It was his view that there was no significant anti-social behaviour taking place and that activities on the sports field were in line with what anyone would expect. This was confirmed by the Police Representative. He went on to praise the efforts of ACSO David Hancock and PC Tony Bagshaw in addressing any issues raised in the community.

(ii) Report of the Police Representative

Theft from motor vehicle	3
Criminal damage	2
Non dwelling burglary	1

The Police representative commented on the success of the street sports event which took place on Monday evenings during the summer holidays and confirmed that the Police would make a contribution to the Parish Council of £200. The total cost of the scheme was confirmed as £720.

(iii) Report of the County Councillor

Councillor Stockdale indicated that she was still dealing with the proposals to change the traffic calming measures in Newboundmill Lane. Officers from Derbyshire County Council had once again been to view the site and would be bringing forward proposals to the cabinet member.
